

IDDI (International Drug Development Institute), a service company in the field of clinical research based in Ottignies Louvain-La-Neuve, is looking to fill the following position:

Biostatistician

interested in working on collaborative projects with major pharmaceutical companies

Responsibilities:

You will be responsible for the statistical aspects of the trials:

- => participate to the clinical development plan (trial designs, sample sizes, interim analysis, etc.)
- => Prepare the Statistical Analysis Plan.
- => Perform the statistical analysis.
- => Report and interpret the results.
- => Write statistical reports and prepare draft publications.

Essential Skills & Capabilities:

- => University degree in biostatistics, statistics or mathematics.
- => Knowledge of SAS (knowledge of Splus would be an asset).
- => Good knowledge of English language, written and spoken.
- => Willingness to talk with scientists in all areas.
- => Previous experience in clinical research preferable but not required.

Please send your CV to IDDI by e-mail: hr@iddi.com as soon as possible.